O I

THE WINERY

The adventure of a man

The Liessi Col del Moin farm is located in Refrontolo and has been producing Prosecco Superiore DOCG, Marzemino Dei Colli Trevigiani, Refrontolo Passito with passion, quality and respect for nature for years. "Col del Moin" from the Venetian dialect, Colle del Mulino, as the winery is located near an ancient seventeenth-century mill. This mill represents one of the first connections between man and the environment, one of the first uses of the force of nature.

HILLS OF REFRONTOLO

Treviso - Italy

Come and discover the territory of the good wine of the Marca Trevigiana. In the heart of Veneto, the Italian region famous for the production of Prosecco Superiore DOCG Conegliano Valdobbiadene. The company is located in the hills of Refrontolo (TV), in the Marca Trevigiana, a few kilometers away from Treviso and Valdobbiadene.

Come and visit us to taste our wines in this beautiful natural environment that has become a UNESCO heritage site.

Our territories do not belong to us,
we belong to our territories.

OUR LAND

Dialogue with nature

The vineyards are managed following the criteria of integrated defense, aimed at reducing the environmental impact of the crop. Approximately half of the farm area is made up of woods. The organic fertilization is carried out using residual processing materials (stalks and pomace and the wood from pruning and cutting from the forest, composted. This in order to preserve the organic substance of the soil, limiting the need for fertilizers from outside the company. the company has a photovoltaic system that ensures energy autonomy even in the more demanding phases.

The fruit of our work,
from the countryside to the table.

OUR WINES

The best stories, between one glass and another

The products are an expression of the specific territory of Refrontolo: the grapes come only from this place.

The processing follows the traditional line but is implemented according to the canons of the best oenological technique that ensures maximum qualitative expression. The production of the wines is personally followed during the whole cycle, from the countryside to the cellar. The grapes are harvested by hand and in compliance with the optimal time of ripeness. The vinification is carried out keeping the different batches separate, which are assembled during the sparkling process, seeking the best balance.

Sparkling wine with elegant aromatic characteristics typical of the grapes of origin, excellent with vegetable-based first courses, risottos, fish.
